BRAINTREE HIGH SCHOOL

DEDIC

Ralph W. Proctor

Superintendent of Schools

Born in Cambridge, Mr. Proctor attended Cambridge Latin School from whence he went to Tufts College where he made Phi Beta Kappa and graduated with a B.S. summa cum laude. He enlisted in the Naval Air Corps while a freshman at Tufts during the first World War. His first appointment was as a history teacher at Bridgewater High School. From there he secured principalships in Chatham High School, Smith Academy, South Manchester High School (Connecticut), Wellesley High School, and Everett Little High School (Maine). Mr. Proctor later became superintendent in Auburn, Maine and came to us as Superintendent of the Braintree Schools in April, 1946. Mr. Proctor holds a M. in Ed. from Boston University.

ATION

Edna E. Woodsum

Miss Woodsum is Mr. Proctor's gracious and efficient secretary. Her interest in young people is generally known, and all who come in contact with her respect her.

Ralph W. Proctor

One of the friendliest and most sincere men that we have ever seen is Mr. Proctor. When he mentions himself it is not of his accomplishments, of which there are many, but of his few failures or when the joke was on him. Mr. Proctor was a star athlete during his high school and college days and therefore takes great interest in sports at B.H.S. You can find him at any football or basketball game. It is very encouraging to the boys playing that their superintendent thinks enough of them to leave his stack of work to come to see them win or lose.

Constance F. Stecher

(Adviser to the Wampatuck)

Miss Constance F. Stecher, Head of the Department of English and Faculty Adviser to THE WAMPATUCK since 1931, has guided and worked with us to point the way to help and to live with others. We have learned through her just what it requires to be successful and happy. We owe much of our achievement to her and we wish to express our deep appreciation for all that she has done for us.

William J. Foley

(Co-Sponsors)

In our Sophomore year, when we were entitled to elect class officers for the first time, we chose Miss Marion J. Simpson to be our pilot. She saw us through our Sophomore and Junior years with success. When it came time to become Seniors, we elected Mr. William J. Foley to assist Miss Simpson with the many and varied events of our fourth year. They have both worked untiringly to guide us in all our activities. The best we can say is—Thank you!

EVERYDAY LIFE

ADM

James L. Jordan

Principal

Here's to Mr. Jordan, the central figure of school life and activities in Braintree High. Mr. Jordan is our jovial principal who keeps the wheels of progress running smoothly in good old B.H.S. He is our kindly adviser who straightens out our difficulties, metes out just punishment with a firm but gentle hand. He is interested in the future of each student individually and in keeping up the high standards of our school.

Albert J. Murphy

Sub-Master

We usually find Mr. Murphy in the cafeteria maintaining peace among the Frosh rather than the upper classmen. You'd recognize him as a short, bright-eyed, friendly man always appearing to be in a hurry.

NISTRATIVE

Kathleen L. Campbell

As you walk into the office to ask for information, the first sound to greet your ears is the steady click, click of the typewriter. As soon as the neatly dressed woman sees you she stops typing, and calling you by your first name or nickname, asks you what she can do for you. That pleasant person with the friendly smile is Mrs. Campbell. It is she who does the phoning, typing, calling and innumerable things to be accomplished in the office. Every pupil is known to her by his first name and she seems to take special interest in each one. Can anyone ever imagine what Braintree High would be like without Mrs. Campbell to lend her helping hand?

MEMORIES OF BRAINTREE HIGH SCHOOL

Ruth Carty

What does B. H. S. mean to me? It means
All the things which four years have brought me.
My friends, my teachers, laughter, tears, joys and sorrows,
Knowing that every day has something new in store for me.
It means classrooms to work in and broaden my mind,
Classrooms to laugh in when a witty (?) teacher cracks a joke,
The library where I forever hear, "People!!! Quiet!!!"
Cafeteria rush at 12:50, and "gab" until 3:00,
The Dairy Bar, busy with us drifting in and out,
The corner drug store and Smiley's.
It means football games in the fall,
Basketball games in the winter,
Baseball and track in the spring.
It means plays, assemblies, dances and the Prom,
Knowing everyone, having a smile for all.
Office, sessions, make-up, books, and homework,
Lockers banging, people rushing along the corridor—yes,
All this means stepping from childhood to youth,
From youth to maturity;
And I shall be sad the day that I wave goodbye
To B. H. S. and all it stands for;
But its memories will be forever sacred to me.

CLASS HISTORY

THE TIMID YEARS

John Bregoli

Good Old 1943 . . .! B. H. S. little realized the possibilities of the Class of 1947 at the time of our entrance. It took some time to become accustomed to the fundamentals of high school life, but ingenuity saw us through. We excelled scholastically as well as in sports of all kinds. By the end of Freshman year we had learned to realize what it meant to be a member of the B. H. S. student body. Sophomore year was ushered in by election of officers: Leonard "Lefty" Marinella, President; James Magee, Vice President; Margaret "Vee" Finnegan, Secretary; Johnston "Bud" Moffatt, Treasurer; and Miss Simpson, Class Sponsor. The big social event of the year was the Sophomore Social which turned out to be highly successful. Our class put many stars on the football, baseball, track, and basketball squads—but, Lo, and Behold! The Freshmen beat us in football! And so, to be Juniors!

THE UNFORGETTABLE YEARS

Virginia Craig

Junior year we sponsored "The Bohemian Girl" which was a great success. Our football team boasted of Peter Leo, "Lefty" Marinella, John LeRoy, and Tony Ascì. We must not forget Junior Prom, the gala event of the year. We elected class officers: "Lefty" Marinella, President; "Bud" Moffatt, Vice President; "Vee" Finnegan, Secretary; Joseph Harvey, Treasurer; with Miss Simpson as Sponsor. This slate remained the same Senior year, except for the fact that Mr. Foley was elected Co-Sponsor. At the beginning of Senior year we received our class rings, sat for pictures, ordered caps and gowns, and parted with our last few dollars for yearbook. Senior Show was a great hit. Of course, our football team was right on its toes. Senior Reception and Banquet were held the last of June. After crossing fingers and toes all year, we were graduated with flying colors. As we left school we turned back to say "Good-bye, Good Old Braintree High—We're sure going to miss you."

We are deeply grateful for the support and help which our year-book has received from our advertisers. They are responsible in a real measure for the quality of the book. We hope that you will acknowledge your appreciation by giving careful consideration to their products.

Wanted . . . GIRL GRADUATES OF '47

For pleasant work with friendly associates . . .

Before you make any decisions as to what you are going to do after graduation, why not investigate the job opportunities which the Telephone Company offers you?

Good pay is among the many advantages you gain by working for the Telephone Company. You earn while you learn; the pay for beginners is good and you can earn increases beginning in a few months.

Then, too, you will be working at an interesting job with congenial people in pleasant surroundings. Your job can be the first step in a real career in public service.

*Your teacher or vocational adviser can tell you

The high mark of fine class jewelry!

Like your own class, generations of graduates have confidently chosen graduation rings bearing the D&C mark of high quality. Since 1898 such rings have been proudly worn by the members of thousands of classes, assured by our "made right" guarantee that their rings exemplified the best in design, material, workmanship — and value. Look for the D&C mark on class and fraternity jewelry.
